

Research Associate in Qualitative Methods

The Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health (SSHSPH) at the National University of Singapore (NUS) is recruiting a full-time Research Associate with experience to support faculty members in the area of qualitative methods and analysis.

Specific duties include but are not limited to: (1) recruiting research participants; (2) conducting in-depth interviews; (3) managing and analyzing qualitative data; (4) assisting in the coordination and reporting of the study findings.

The candidate should: (1) hold a Master's degree in Psychology, Sociology, Social work, Nursing or Public Health; (2) have past experience in conducting in-depth interviews and analyzing qualitative data; (3) have familiarity with qualitative software such as NVivo or ATLAS.ti; (4) have good interpersonal skills to work with research participants and the research team while working independently.

The position is a 1-year contract in the first instance and could be extended with good performance.

Applicants should send the following by email to Ms. Felicia Yue (ephyqjf@nus.edu.sg):

- 1) Cover note introducing themselves
- 2) Brief statement of interest matching their skills and competencies to the requirements of the post (no more than 1000 words)
- 3) A two-page Curriculum Vitae, containing details of three named referees
- 4) A sample of published work (if any) that is the most relevant to the current vacancy
- 5) A completed NUS Personal Data Consent for Job Applicants (form is available here: NUS Personal Data Consent for Job Applicants)

Informal enquiries can be addressed to A/Prof Gerald Koh (ephkohch@nus.edu.sg).

Interviews will be either face-to-face for local candidates or by video link for those who are based abroad.
