Antibiotic Resistance: How It Impacts Us Video Contest

Terms and Conditions:
1. The “Antibiotic Resistance: How It Impacts Us – Video Contest” is jointly organised by the Antimicrobial Resistance Programme at the Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health located at the Tahir Foundation Building, 12 Science Drive, #10-01, Singapore 117549, and by the School of Life Sciences and Chemical Technology at Ngee Ann Polytechnic located at 535 Clementi Road, Singapore 559489 (“the Organiser”).

2. No entry fee is required to enter this contest.

3. By entering this contest, the participants agree to be bound by the terms and conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) spelled out below and to abide by the decision of the Organiser in all matters relating to the contest.

Contest:
1. We invite participants to submit an original video that is no longer than 3 minutes, reflecting the theme of the contest – “Antibiotic Resistance: How It Impacts Us”.

2. Submission of entries opens from 1st June 2017, 0800H and will close on 30th September 2017, 2359H. No further entries will be accepted after this date.

3. The contest is open to all students of Singapore schools (excluding universities) age 14-20 years.
   a) Participants may submit videos as individuals or work in groups.
   b) Persons who are involved in the planning, organisation, judging or any part of the contest, and their immediate family members are not qualified to participate in the contest.
   c) Only one video per participant or group will be judged for the contest.

4. Participants are required to upload their videos on YouTube (https://www.youtube.com/) and submit the video’s URL and an accompanying short caption to both the following email addresses: mdchly@nus.edu.sg and idsg50feedback@gmail.com. Please include the following information in the caption:
   a) Name(s) of the participant(s) submitting the video, including the person to contact in group efforts.
   b) School name and address.
   c) Contact details, including email and handphone number.
   d) Title of video.
   e) A short description of the video – no more than 100 words.

5. Participants will be bound by the Terms of Service of YouTube (https://www.youtube.com/static?gl=GB&template=terms), and further acknowledge and agree that the Organiser neither governs the participants’ use of YouTube nor is responsible for any actions taken by YouTube over the participants’ account, video entry or access to the video.

6. All entries will be subject to the approval of the Organiser, who will have the sole discretion to disqualify any entry as it deems fit, including but not limited to videos that:
   a) Contain obscene, provocative, objectionable or otherwise inappropriate content.
   b) Contain content that is irrelevant to the theme of the contest.

7. All video submissions:
   a) Should begin with a 5-10 second full-screen title shot that includes the following information:
      i. Name(s) of the participant(s) submitting the video, including the person to contact in group efforts.
      ii. School name and address.
      iii. Title of video.
   b) Must not have been created with professional assistance. Adults are allowed to be actors or cameramen but not content contributors.
   c) Must be original work conceived and created solely by the participants. No copyrighted materials (images, music, animations, etc.) may be used for the contest unless a participant owns the copyright or has a license to use the material for the contest. The participants shall indemnify the Organiser against any intellectual property infringement claims or demands including any costs, charges and expenses in respect thereof.

8. Ownership of the underlying intellectual property of the video project remains with the participants, with the following exceptions:
   a) Participants grant the Organiser the right to use their names, photographs, statements, quotes, testimonials, and video submissions for advertising, publicity, and promotional purposes without notification or further compensation.
   b) Participants grant the Organiser the right to use, reproduce, reprint, distribute, perform, and/or display the participants’ project videos without further compensation or notification to the participants.

9. Judging will occur from 2\(^{nd}\) to 15\(^{th}\) October 2017. The decision of the judges will be final, with the videos being assessed based on:
   a) Whether the video follows the guidelines.
   b) Does the video clearly address the theme of the contest.
   c) How well does the video draw in the viewer and keep his/her attention.
   d) Production quality.
   e) Originality and innovation.

10. Prizes will be presented during World Antibiotic Awareness Week (13\(^{th}\) to 19\(^{th}\) November 2017) at the Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health – further details will be provided to the award winners. The following prizes will be available for the contest:
a) Polytechnics and Junior Colleges
   i. One First Place: $2,000
   ii. One Second Place: $1,000
   iii. Two Merit Awards: $500

b) Secondary schools
   i. One First Place: $1,000
   ii. One Second Place: $500
   iii. Two Merit Awards: $250

11. The Organiser will not be responsible or liable for any loss or damage relating to or arising from the contest or the prizes awarded, regardless of the cause or reason.

12. These Terms and Conditions will be governed by the laws of the Republic of Singapore and the participants agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore courts.